

Killed by Fall on His Own Stoop.
The wife of William Verling, a clerk, twenty-eight years old, waited until dawn to-day for him to return to their home, No. 37 Wyckoff Avenue, Williamsburg. Shortly after 6 o'clock the janitor of the house found him dead of a fractured skull in the arway of the house. He had fallen over the railing of the front steps and been instantly killed.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens So Evenly that It Cannot Be Discovered.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and straggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wych's Sage and Sulphur" because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.—Advt.

Martha Walter's Out-of-Doors Art Seen on 5th Ave.

It is a pleasing exhibition that is based upon the paintings by Martha Walter, at the Reinhardt Galleries, No. 545 Fifth Avenue. The catalogue contains twenty-one numbers. The work of Miss Walter deals with the great out-of-doors, and into her pictures she contrives to put atmosphere and vitality. Her beach scenes, both at Brighton and at Gloucester, Mass., where she spent the summer and painted the pictures now shown, reflect the sea-washed shores. The summer visitors, the picturesque bathers and the crowds are all there, and in proper pose and action.

Her colors are carefully chosen and handled with artistic skill and discrimination. The surf, the clouds, and the distant hills, are alike in being well conceived and happily executed. The gladsome bathers, the romping and frolicking children who are joyously wading, are pictured with a glad hand and make a strong appeal.

Sometimes, it is true, one misses strong and clear definition, but the modernists abjure definition, and it must be said that Miss Walter secures good general effects.

Her composition is noteworthy and there are many high spots in her coloring.

"The Blue Shawl" is the portrait of a girl in the open. The sunlight glints upon her face and her hair masses are delightfully contrasting. They are also decorative. She is very young, the blue shawl and is unafraid. The tree leaves and branches are well done. The same is true of the sky.

"Dorothy Lee Bell" is another good portrait. Red is the dominant color in the girl's coat, that is shown wind-swept. Her laughing face is surrounded by a hat trimmed with red and blue feathers. Tree branches are incidental.

"Under the Large Umbrella" has to do with an interesting group at the seaside. Three girls are shown in the composition. The detail is negligible, but the colors of the spectrum are lavished upon the girls and their outfitting. The picture gives the observer a mental push.

Her sure knowledge of child life is reflected again and again in the present showing.

"Fishing, Low Tide" is an excellent example of the wind on the beach. Women and children figure in this picture with certainty and force.

TRAPPED ON A TRESTLE, MAN AND WIFE ARE HURT

As Train Bore Down on Them, Mr. Straff Tried to Rescue Companion From Her Peril.

Caught on a railway trestle at Keamsburg, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. John Straff, of Spring Street, Atlantic Highlands, were both hurt seriously.

They were walking across the trestle when a Jersey Central train came upon them. Mr. Straff got out of the way of the train, but his wife became confused and stepped in its path. Her husband grabbed her in time to save her from going fully under the wheels of the train, but was not quick enough to prevent the engine from knocking her down. One of her feet was nearly severed, her jaw was broken, and it is feared her skull is fractured. Mr. Straff was badly bruised about the body and head.

Both were taken by train to the Monmouth Hospital in Long Branch.

FRED P. MORRIS DEAD; ORGANIZED L. I. NEWS CO.

His Life Devoted to Affairs of Corporation That He Brought Into Existence.

Frederick P. Morris, President of the Long Island News Company, died early to-day at his home at Garden City of hardening of the arteries. Mr. Morris, who was sixty-four years old, began life as a newsboy. At nineteen he was employed by Stilleit, who had the newspaper privileges of the Long Island Railroad. When the Union News Company took over the business Mr. Morris became Long Island manager for that company. After a year he organized the Long Island News Company, of which he had since been the head.

Mr. Morris was a Mason of high degree. He was for a time a representative in this country of the Grand Lodge of Great Britain—he was born in Manchester, England—and was Past Master of Cornucopia Lodge No. 563 of Flushing. He was a trustee of the Nassau-Suffolk Bond and Guarantee Company, an officer of the Nassau Trust Company and a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the Union League, Lotos and Hardware Clubs of this city. He was the first president of the Republican Club of Flushing and was one of New York's Presidential electors in 1904. His widow, Mrs. Annie L. Morris, and a daughter, Mrs. Frederick T. Clark, survive him.

ROLLER-SKATING BOY STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

Struck by an automobile while roller skating, Earl Ehrbar, nine years old, of No. 490 East Twenty-eighth Street, Flatbush, is in Kings County Hospital with a fractured skull and may die. He was injured at East Twenty-eighth Street and Flatbush Avenue last night. The automobile was operated by Charles Farrelly, of No. 1110 Flatbush Avenue.

The boy was skating with companions in the street, and a race was projected. He led the others, and on reaching Flatbush Avenue young Ehrbar was unable to stop, and in making a turn fell to the street. Mr. Farrelly was approaching the crossing, and his speed was such that he was unable either to stop, or by turning out, avoid striking the boy. He brought his automobile to a halt and carried the injured lad to the hospital.

MARSHALL GIRL IN HOSPITAL

Long a Captive in Father's Home, She Is Now in Johns Hopkins.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 1.—Grace Marshall, who was a prisoner for twelve years in the home of her father and step-mother near St. Michael's, arrived in this city to-day and was taken to the Phipps Clinic of Johns Hopkins Hospital, where an effort will be made to restore her to physical and mental health.

She came from Easton with her aunt.

Mrs. M. H. James, and Miss Emma Davies, the agent at Easton for the Children's Aid Society. Since she was taken from her father's home she has so far recovered that she is able to walk about a little.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE DEAF

If you are losing your hearing—if you are troubled with buzzing and ringing in the ears—if you find that your nostrils are clogged—if you have given up hopes of finding relief, just go to Riker & Hegeman, or any other drug store, and purchase one ounce of Fluid Euceral. Mix this with one pint of warm water. Put two drops in the affected ear every night. Put one tablespoonful in a fourth of a glass of warm water and gargle throat and stuff up nose night and morning. Keep this up for a few weeks and test your hearing, and you will be pleased to note the improvement. You will also, no doubt, discover that your catarrh has disappeared and head noises gone.—Advt.

LOWELL WOMAN HAD TO BE FED AND DRESSED LIKE A CHILD

Suffered From Deforming Rheumatism For Years--- Joints Grated Like Sand---Now Walks Without Assistance.

WHEEL CHAIR DISCARDED BY LIZZIE MACMASTER.

"Come right in! I will gladly tell you about myself, for I have longed for the time when I could tell someone of my recovery. I am so elated, now that I can walk, that I really don't know where to commence," said Mrs. Lizzie MacMaster of 312 Humphreys St., Lowell, Mass., when asked for a statement. She continued: "For seven years I have not known a day that I did not have pain. All my joints were afflicted; when I moved my head I could hear and feel grating like there was gravel or sand in my neck. My knees would snap and grate like my neck; they were drawn up so I was unable to straighten them; the grating of my knees could be heard downstairs. If I wanted to sit down I would have to literally fall in a chair. Trunk straps were fastened around my body to get me upstairs on the top step I was laid on a rug and dragged to the bed.

"The fingers of the right hand were drawn into the palm and the hand drawn to the body. I could not get my hand to my head, as joints were stiff, and I had to be fed and dressed like a child. I was in continual pain like a child. I was in continual pain and no part of body seemed to escape the disease. Different physicians treated me for a time, but finally said I could not be cured. One physician gave me injections of a vaccine, but I only grew worse. The last doctor said I would never get rid of the disease, as it was the worst form of rheumatism Arthritis deformans. I was in bed for sixteen months.

"Reading about Var-ne-sis and how it helped others with rheumatism of the joints I decided to try it. I am glad I did, for in a short time I could use my wheel chair, then my crutches and finally my canes. The pain and stiffness became less noticeable. The chafy bunches of the fingers and the knuckles disappeared, my hands straightened so that now I can feed and dress myself. I can walk downstairs, step after step, sew a little and do some housework.

"I have given W. A. Varney my wheel chair, crutches and canes to add to his large collection, for I can get about now without any assistance. "I am glad you called, for I am always pleased to tell anyone how I recovered from this terrible disease. Perhaps my experience will help some other poor sufferer."

Var-ne-sis is a simple vegetable preparation and does not contain iodides, salicylates or the ordinary rheumatic drugs. It is not a cure-all, but a rheumatic remedy that gets results. Send to W. A. Varney, Lynn, Mass., for the Story of Var-ne-sis. It's Free. Get Var-ne-sis now, today, at Riker-Hegeman's and other reliable druggists. Tell your druggist to get Var-ne-sis for you from his wholesaler or send to W. A. Varney, Lynn, Mass.—Advertisement.
